

WORD ORDER (Affermative/Negative)

1) WHO + WHAT (Intransitive)

- He travels

2) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object)

- He watched TV

3) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object) + HOW (manner)

- He drives a car slowly

4) WHO + HOW OFTEN (adv of frequency) + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object)

- He rarely drives a car
- He rarely drives a car slowly

5) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object) + HOW (manner) + WHERE

- He drives a car slowly in the city
- In the city, he drives a car slowly
- He rarely drives a car slowly in the city

5b) WHO + WHAT (verb of movement) + WHERE (destination) + HOW (manner)

- He ran home quickly

6) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object) + HOW (manner) + WHERE + WHEN

- He drives a car slowly in the city on Sundays.
- On Sundays, he drives a car slowly in the city.
- In the city on Sundays, he drives a car slowly.

6b) WHO + WHAT (verb of movement) + WHERE (destination) + HOW (manner) + WHEN

- He ran home quickly yesterday
- Yesterday, he ran home quickly

7) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object) + HOW (manner) + WHERE + WHEN + WHY

- He drives a car slowly in the city on Sundays because there is a speed camera.
- He drives a car slowly in the city on Sundays to avoid a speeding fine.
- On Sundays, he drives a car slowly in the city because there is a speed camera.
- In the city on Sundays, he drives a car slowly to avoid getting a speeding fine.

DOUBLE OBJECT PHRASES!!

1) WHO + WHAT (transitive verb + direct object + indirect object)

- He read the book to me
- He read me the book
- They gave the prize to him
- They gave him the prize
- He cooked dinner for me
- She spoke to me about the lesson